

ADVANCING THE FUTURE OF FOOD & BEVERAGE WITH OMEGA-3 MEETING THE EVOLVING DEMANDS OF THE FOOD & BEVERAGE INDUSTRY

The food landscape is rapidly changing. Today's consumers are increasingly health-conscious, ingredient-savvy, and sustainability-minded. At KD Nutra®, we help food and beverage brands stay ahead of these trends by offering integrated, innovative solutions that cater to:

- Boosting nutritional value
- Supporting clean and organic labelling
- Creating custom nutrient premix formulations

Powered by deep market insight and a commitment to local customization, KD Nutra® ensures you never have to choose between taste and health. Great food should taste amazing, nourish the body, and respect the planet. With us, you can deliver it all.

MEG-3®: TRUSTED, SUSTAINABLE OMEGA-3 NUTRITION

MEG-3® is the most trusted name in Omega-3 EPA and DHA. Pure, high-quality, and sustainably sourced, MEG-3® offers a versatile solution for fortifying food and beverage products.

Available as:

- Easy-to-use powder formats via distributors/partners
- Premium food-grade oils, including our new TG concentrate specifically formulated for gummies

Manufactured by KD Nutra®, MEG-3® brings essential nutrients to everyday food without compromising taste or formulation integrity.

PROVEN SUCCESS IN DIVERSE APPLICATIONS

With over 20 years of expertise and a dedicated oil tasting panel at our Mulgrave, Canada manufacturing site, KD Nutra® has built a legacy of excellence. Our food-grade Omega-3 oils are trusted by:

- Global infant formula leaders, meeting the highest standards in quality and purity
- The functional food and beverage industry, with demonstrated success across a wide range of applications
- Powder manufacturers (spray dried emulsions and complex coacervate powders), through strategic partnerships and top-tier distribution channels

DELIVERING WHAT MATTERS MOST TO FOOD & BEVERAGE BRANDS

At KD Nutra®, we understand what food and beverage companies need: tailored taste and texture, cost-effective value, sustainable ingredients, and the flexibility to meet growing demand for plant-based and precision-fermented alternatives.

Backed by our advanced marine lipid portfolio and a passion for innovation, we offer comprehensive Omega-3 solutions for every need, including:

- Premium food-grade Omega-3 oils ready for direct use in foods and beverages
- Partnering with powder manufacturers to supply MEG-3® oils for superior powder formulations
- Launching an innovative food-grade marine TG concentrate, ideal for gummies
- Developing a new line of precision fermentation-derived food oils to meet the needs of plant-conscious consumers

From functional foods to supplements and infant nutrition, KD Nutra® provides comprehensive Omega-3 solutions – backed by science and the confidence of working with the global leader in Omega-3s.

Let's build a better food future – together.
